

TERMINATION POLICY

1. General Provisions

1.1. This Termination Policy (“Policy”) governs the suspension and termination of user accounts on the Tokenum platform, operated by Djooky Finance Limited, a company incorporated in British Columbia, Canada (Incorporation Number: BC1535602), with its registered office at 5780 Victoria Drive, Unit #123, Vancouver, British Columbia, V5P 3W7 (the “Company”).

1.2. Djooky Finance Limited is registered with the Financial Transactions and Reports Analysis Centre of Canada (FINTRAC) as a Money Services Business (MSB) under registration number C100000967. This Policy reflects the Company’s obligations under applicable Canadian laws, including anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing requirements.

1.3. This Policy outlines the circumstances under which access to the Tokenum platform may be restricted, suspended, or terminated.

2. Grounds for Termination or Suspension

2.1. The Company may suspend, restrict, or terminate access to the services at its sole discretion in the following cases:

- Violation of the Terms of Use, Privacy Policy, or any applicable policies
- Failure to comply with KYC, AML, or identity verification requirements
- Involvement in fraud, money laundering, terrorist financing, Sanctioned operations or other unlawful activities.
- Providing false, misleading, or incomplete information
- Unauthorized access or use of another user’s account
- Attempts to gain unauthorized access to systems, data, or infrastructure
- Use of bots, scripts, or automated tools without authorization
- Activities compromising platform security or integrity
- Failure to respond to compliance requests within a reasonable timeframe
- Use of high-risk wallets or blockchain addresses flagged by risk monitoring tools
- Transactions involving sanctioned or restricted jurisdictions
- Suspected market manipulation or abusive trading practices
- Prolonged account inactivity (as defined internally)
- Any activity that may expose the Company to legal, regulatory, or reputational risk
- Any reason required to comply with applicable laws, regulations, or directives from regulatory authorities

3. Effects of Termination

3.1. Upon termination, access to the Tokenum platform and all associated services will be revoked.

3.2. The Company may freeze or restrict access to funds or digital assets where required to comply with legal, regulatory, or investigative obligations, including obligations under Canadian AML legislation.

3.3. Withdrawals and transactions may be delayed, restricted, or cancelled during investigations or compliance reviews.

3.4. The Company shall not be liable for any losses resulting from account suspension or termination, except as required by applicable law.

4. User-Initiated Termination

4.1. Users may request account closure by contacting: support@tokenum.com

4.2. Users are expected to withdraw all funds prior to closure, unless restricted due to compliance, legal, or investigative reasons.

4.3. The Company may require identity verification before processing account closure.

4.4. User data will be retained and processed in accordance with applicable Canadian laws (including PIPEDA) and the Company’s Privacy Policy.

5. Suspension and Investigation

5.1. The Company may suspend accounts without prior notice if suspicious or potentially illegal activity is detected.

5.2. During investigations, access to funds and services may be restricted.

5.3. Users may be required to provide additional documentation or explanations.

5.4. Where legally permitted, the Company will notify users of actions taken. However, disclosure may be restricted in cases involving AML/FINTRAC obligations (e.g., suspicious transaction reporting).

6. Right to Appeal

6.1. Users may submit an appeal within 30 days of notification by contacting the Company via email.

6.2. The Company will review the appeal and respond within a reasonable timeframe.

6.3. The Company’s decision following the appeal shall be final, unless otherwise required by law.
